I don't think they did. I think the AE comments are in the Class III comments in the table. Also attaching the current version of the RTC. I think it starts on p. 56.

Are they incorporated into either the Class III or Class V comments you put in the sharepoint folder? I'm just seeing those in there right now? Just trying to see whether they commented on NEPA functional equivalence for the AE?

Yes, they did provide some comments on the AE.
